

Sequencing Jasper's Beanstalk

Cut out the sentences and see if your child can read the sentences and then stick them down on a piece of paper in the correct sequence showing what happened at the beginning, middle and end.

Then he got rid of the bean.

He got fed up and dug it up.

He got a bean. He planted it.

He looked after it.

Now he has a big beanstalk and is looking for giants!

