

English:

- building tension and mood in narrative writing using short sentences, well-chosen vocabulary and dialogue for effect
- The Highwayman poem - looking at settings, characters and descriptive language
- answering a variety of comprehension questions on Highwaymen of the Peak (non-fiction) and The Highwayman (fiction), including ordering events
- story writing (retelling The Highwayman)
- using –ing sentence openers and continuing to vary sentence openers using IPACE
- revision of the past perfect tense
- prefixes (with and without hyphens) and suffixes (-ate, -en, -ify, -ise, -al, -any, -ic)

Maths:

- Multiplying fractions by mixed numbers.
- Find fractions of amounts.
- Decimals – place value, ordering & rounding.
- Fractions as decimals.
- Perimeter and area

Topic: Finish geography topic on Mountains- how could we filter dirty water if contaminated by an earthquake or a volcanic eruption. R.E: The Miracle Maker Details about Jesus. Are miracles real? What is Faith?

PSHE:

Online safety –control and consent around social media.

Community: What makes me feel like I belong?

How does it feel to be British?

Computing:

Video editing

Using a storyboard

Planning a video

Filming and editing

Music:

- Volcano composition.
- Easter songs

French:

- Months and dates revision
- School subjects and French schools
- School subjects/preferences

Reminders:

Thursday 2nd March - World Book Day

Friday 10th March – Halle Orchestra Concert Trip

w/c Monday 13th March - Science Week

PE:

- Indoor (Monday) – Dance
- Outdoor (Thursday) – Netball

Art & DT:

- Manga Art based on The Highwayman
- Daffodil compositions

Key Texts:

The Highwayman by Alfred Noyes

Our class reading book is Holes by Louis Sachar

