

Y4 Romans

End Points:

Know that Rome was an empire because of the number of countries it ruled.

Know that Rome built villas, sewers and roads and they brought this technology to Britain.

Know that the location of a settlement affects the way of life.

Know that other examples of Roman legacies are language, place names, buildings, engineering, law and government.

Prior Learning

Future Learning

Understand some of the key developments during the Stone Age, e.g. hunting techniques, houses etc.

Understand what cave paintings can tell us about life in the Stone Age.

Study fossils and learn about the life of Mary Anning.

Can say when the Viking era was in relation to other historical eras.

Learn about the Vikings as sailors, traders, invaders, settlers, farmers and craftsmen.

Learn about Viking beliefs and discover facts about some of the most well-known gods and goddesses.

Key Vocabulary

Word

Definition

Ancient Rome

A historical period of time between 800BC to 476AD.

Empire

Where one country rules many other countries.

legionary

A soldier in the Roman army.

scutum

The shield used by legionaries.

settlement

A community of people living in a particular area.

Celts

A group of people who inhabited Britain at the time of the invasion.

trade

Buying and selling goods and services.

technology

Using science for a practical purpose e.g. aqueducts, concrete.

legacy

The long lasting impact of events and actions.

How you can help at home:

Research aspects of the Roman topic online and in books, especially the impact on Britain today

Investigate a town with Roman historical links e.g. Bath