

English:

- Writing setting descriptions using descriptive language and a range of sentence types
- Reading comprehension on 'There's No Such Thing.'
- Reading comprehension on The Firework Maker's Daughter, focussing on vocabulary, and using inference and evidence
- Exploring Lila's dilemma through drama (conscience alley) and writing a balanced argument
- Spelling rules: -ant, -able/-ible, and it's or its

Maths:

- Place value up to millions
- Roman Numerals
- Four rules for calculations
- Times tables practice
- Rounding numbers

Science:

Egglympics:

- forces (friction and air resistance)
- levers

PSHE:

- How to speak Human-communication skills.
- Zones of Regulation
- Community

RE:

- Christianity

Computing:

- Vector Drawings

D&T:

- Design, make and evaluate crumbles.

French:

- Classroom instructions
- Sports and opinions
- Sports clothing
- Emperor's New Clothes story

Dates &

Reminders:

Ecclesall Poetry Day
(Thursday 25th September)

PE:

Outdoor (Monday):

Seahorses - Tag Rugby
Starfish - Netball
Stingrays - Tennis

Indoor (Thursday) : Yoga

Art:

- Study the artist Jean-Michel Basquiat.
- Make a collagraph (printing plate). Use this to create prints and then embellish these to produce a piece in the style of Basquiat.

Key Texts:

Me and My Brian
by Helen Rutter

The Firework-Maker's Daughter by Philip Pullman

Primary
ECCLESALL
School

www.ecclesallprimary.co.uk