

English:

- Setting description based on the book, 'Holes' by Louis Sachar
- How to write diary entries based around a climb to the summit of Mount Everest and as a character from the book 'Holes.'
- How to use dashes.
- Varying sentence openers.

Maths:

- Short and long multiplication
- Short and long division
- Problem solving with multiplication and division
- Multiplying fractions
- Fractions of amounts

Topic:*Geography

- Mountains: formation (tectonic plates), types and ranges.
- Earthquakes: causes and impact
- Volcanoes: how are they formed? Why do people live near them?
- Weathering and erosion.
- Valleys: waterfalls and gorges
- Glacier versus river valleys

RE: Why is the Torah important to the Jewish people?

French: Hobbies/Pets
The verb 'etre' and the negative
Baby elephant story
Numbers 1-60 and calculations

Computing:

Programming: using the program Scratch.

Music:

- Mountain composition
- Sing in unison

PSHE:

Going for Goals
Online Safety

Dates:

22nd January - Prime VR (Mount Everest).

PE: Outdoors:

Seahorses: Hockey
Starfish: Football
Stingrays: Tag Rugby
Indoors: Dodgeball

DT:

Stable structures linked to earthquakes.

Key Texts:

Class reader: Holes by Louis Sachar

Primary
ECCLESALL
School

www.ecclesallprimary.co.uk